If You falsely describe the property to Our prejudice or misrepresent or fraudulently omit to communicate any circumstance that is material to be made known to Us in order to enable it to judge the risk to be undertaken, the Policy is void as to any property in relation to which the misrepresentation or omission is material.

If the Policy is terminated by the Insurer, (i) the Insurer must refund the excess of premium actually paid by You over the prorated premium for the expired time, but in no event may the prorated premium for the expired time be less than any minimum retained premium specified in the Policy, and (ii) the refund must accompany the notice unless the premium is subject to adjustment or determination as to amount, in which case the refund must be made as soon as practicable.
- c. If the Policy is terminated by You, the Insurer must refund as soon as practicable the excess of premium actually paid by You over the short rate premium for the expired time specified in the contract, but in no event may the short rate premium for the expired time be less than any minimum retained premium specified in the Policy.
